Coulisse expands with design studio

A room full of inspiration and the creative hart of Coulisse since March last. Under the supervision of Head Designer Catharina Idema, who joined Coulisse on 1 March last, the Coulisse Design Team looks for trends and translates these into trend books and the latest collections in window decoration. The creative team furthermore consists of newcomer at Coulisse Valerie Parisius and marketer Maud van Woerden. The design studio is equipped with a photo studio as well as a number of inkjet printers for scanning, editing and printing designs. Coulisse expects to be able to respond to trends even faster and to set trends. The Design Studio is situated next to the Coulisse Design Centre in Dock 36 in Enter, The Netherlands.
