New at Coulisse

With the opening of the Coulisse Design Studio last March two designers joined Coulisse. Also two new sales managers joined Coulisse in order to achieve further international expansion.

Head designer Coulisse design studio

On 1 March last Catharina Idema joined Coulisse as Head Designer. After her studies at the Design Academy Catharina developed and designed interior textile collections, carpets as well as wall covering collections. Catharina is an expert in the field of colours and materials for interior textiles and furthermore has experience as a stylist. Apart from her work at Coulisse Catharina will also remain connected to the styling academy Artemis in Amsterdam as a teacher.

Designer Coullisse design studio Valerie Parisius

Since March Valerie Parisius has been part of the Coullisse Design Team as a designer. Valerie is responsible for picking up trends, developing trend books and collections. After her studies Fashion and Design at the Amsterdam Fashion Institute Valerie has had apprenticeships in Shanghai, at Tony Cohen in Amsterdam and Alexander Mc Queen in London.

Sales Manager Coulisse South- and Latin-America

As Sales Manager at Coulisse Pim Molenaars is responsible for South and Latin-America. After finishing courses in business administration and politics Pim started his career as a consultant. A couple of years ago he discovered South-America. He immediately fell in love with the continent and developed several projects there. At Coulisse Pim will be mainly focussing on the Spanish-speaking countries in South and Latin-America in order to further expand Coulisse as a brand there.

Sales Manager Coulisse Ukraine

Vitalii Shevchenko joined Coulisse as Sales Manager for the Ukraine. After taking a course in economics Vitalii started his professional career as a salesman in the construction machinery industry. After an internal traineeship in Enter Vitalii will be working the Ukrainian market from his home town Kiev under the supervision of Jop Vos.
